

Motivational Speaker | Seminar Leader | Personal Development Coach

Lori Evans has provided organizations with dynamic training solutions for over 18 years. She is a proven expert at effectively teaching practical techniques to develop communication and leadership abilities to not only business leaders but women in transition. Lori is passionate about empowering and inspiring individuals to achieve their dreams. These skills are essential to projecting personal and corporate excellence in today's competitive marketplace. Lori is well known for her dynamic seminars on:

- Leadership Development
- Excellent Customer Service
- Effectively Managing Change
- Conflict Resolution
- Effective Coaching

Lori Evans
President & CEO

Lori is in demand as a keynote speaker at national business conferences and has appeared on television talk shows. She has served on faculty for Virginia Bankers School of Bank Management since 2002.

Clients for which she has provided training:

- U.S. Army
- Maryland Department of Transportation
- BankAnnapolis
- Bay Bank of Maryland
- Central Virginia Bank
- Virginia Bankers Association
- Accenture
- Chaney Enterprises
- City of Frederick - Maryland Housing Authority

Her training programs lead you through the process of transforming your workplace into one that functions with impeccable integrity, powerful communication, and a spirit of community.

Lori engages in community outreach programs. She has volunteered at the Chrysalis House, a drug and alcohol recovery home for women in Crownsville, Maryland, where she applies experiential techniques in Self-Esteem Development and Empowerment.

Lori's vision to make a difference expanded to global proportions when she embarked on several mission trips to El Salvador to help deliver aid to orphanages.